Lincy Foundation Donates $200,000 to Armenian Sisters' Academy of Los Angeles

GLENDAL—The Lincy Foundation made a contribution of $200,000 last month to the Armenian Sisters' Academy of Los Angeles—the largest single contribution in the school's recent history. This grant validates the school's accomplishments and recognizes its efforts in providing a well-rounded education to its students.

Established in 1985, The Armenian Sisters' Academy of Los Angeles is one of three schools in the United States, operated by the only existing order of the Armenian Sisters of the Immaculate Conception. It offers classes from nursery through 8th grade, and it is fully accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

The Sisters, staff, school community and students at the Armenian Sisters' Academy expressed their gratitude for this contribution. The grant will greatly enhance the school's academic environment and enrich the daily lives of its students and staff.
